It having been agreed on, for the sake of economy to ourselves, and for the welfare of our Stock and Vessels to receive any Letters that might be waiting for us, that I should proceed to Rio de Janeiro first. I started this morning, leaving Mr. Cruickshanks at this interesting Port. Augustus. I noticed two of the Indian Men of Prize in the Boat Sides, and gathered some of a Tree; which I had often tried in vain to procure. Specimens in Flower were sent from St Paul, and shewed to be Dracæna, when doing the second. Sent Mount my Lips and for two days I felt its effects. Sarsaparilla daily at 8 o'clock A.M. in time to escape a Thunder Storm which soon after fell.

12th Tuesday. Cloudy but fine. This afternoon I received when the Commodore, and received from him Letters of Date 10th June. from Sir Joseph Banks, & from Mr. Gibson. On Examination she showed me a Letter from Sir Joseph Banks to himself and gave it into my hands to read, which I accordingly did & told me that now there was a chance, to go to the E.I.S. by the Spanish Register. who was bound to Lima & the E.Indies, but this vessel was to sail on Friday next. It would have been impossible to have got ready by such a short time, except in the Land Locks of Rio. And it would be recommended, that this Packet touching at the Cape was not known to the Officers and Crew. Among other things I have would request, that our Boats had not arrived from Sydney, via Port Jackson, although the wind had been fair for some time.

13th Wednesday. Morning cloudy, Thermometer 70. & the Packet being hired for Sailing on Friday I took the opportunity to send Letters to Sir Joseph Banks, and to Mr. Gibson. Intending to return to Augustus tomorrow Afternoon.

14th Thursday Fine in early part of the whole day, by which I was detained at Rio.

15th Friday Morning cloudy, & then in Light showers about 7 A.M. I set out from Rio rowing a little past Botafogo, a Mountain in Flames, a stranger to me. about 8 A.M. I reached the King whose name was indeed Rio. & the Chart being reached upon
